

Autotecnica Introduces New Interior Dash Program

Autotecnica is pleased to introduce its chrome and stainless interior dash program

Chatsworth, CA (PRWEB) April 22, 2005 -- Autotecnica, a leader in offering OEM quality styling products, is pleased to introduce its chrome and stainless interior dash program. Complete with kits in both stainless steel and chrome, they are designed to fit all late model Ford, Chevrolet, and Dodge trucks and SUVs. They are in stock and ready for immediate shipping.

As the Autotecnica exterior chrome accents explode into the market, the introduction of an interior dash kit to match is another example of its dedication and vision, says Alan Kantor, President of Autotecnica. These are high-quality parts that fit right and install easily. And they are at the right price. They even come with a three-year warranty.

The new chrome and stainless interior dash parts are an easy and quick way to add serious style for a reasonable price. Using 3M tape, they are easy to install. Designed to match the chrome exterior accessories, not only supplied by Autotecnica, but all manufacturers of exterior accent pieces.
