STOCKTON, CA (PRWEB) June 19, 2004 -- NuGeneration Technologies, LLC. (NuGen) (<http://www.nugentec.com>), today announced that it has been awarded a five hundred thousand dollar plus 5-year contract. This new contract shows the vigorous growth trend of the company and the commitment of the firm's partnership with the government.

The contract is for an environmentally friendly, non-toxic, non-corrosive — Heavy Duty Bus Wash Soap. — Which will be used for everyday cleaning and washing of both the exterior and interior of AC Transit's (<http://www.actransit.org>) fleet of over 843 vehicles. NuGenTec's Power Wash 12 was specifically developed for applications like that of AC Transit.

VP of NuGenTec, Donato Polignone, in making the new contract win announcement also stated that the company's government contracts could potentially be the largest component of the company's revenue stream in the coming years. Mr. Polignone noted that millions of dollars are wasted by government agencies buying products that are outdated and ineffective. New chemistries have been commercialized that are both safer to use and are more cost effective to implement both from a cost per gallon and cost of ownership standpoint.
