(PRWEB) June 20, 2004 -- Westwood Used Auto Parts, the largest auto recycler in the tri-cities has a new owner and a brand new web site designed by www.eboomwebsolutions.com.

Paul Haynes the new joyful owner is an experienced man on the business. He worked at Ralph's Auto Supply for 18 years where he acquired most of his expertise and knowledge on the used auto parts field. He has dealt with so many different automotive brands and parts that he can tell them apart blindfolded.

His right hand man, actually at his left on the counter, and general manager Mike McCunnie, another dinosaur on the used auto parts wall of fame, worked for 15 years at United Used Auto Parts.

These two men at the front either on the phones or facing the public are not alone on this game. Backing them up on the yard, there is an excellent team of experts dismantling, cleaning, testing & inspecting all used auto parts prior to deliver it to the customer.

With competitive pricing a courteous and friendly service they offer, as a compliment, 4 months warranty on all used auto parts. You can't go wrong with that.

They are located in Coquitlam just beside Rona's Home Center at 2792 Barnet Highway.

Their phone # is 604-464-8244 and their fax # 604-464-0885. But now you can visit them online at their web site www.westwoodautoparts.com or contact them by email: info@westwoodusedautoparts.com . They deliver anywhere so go ahead and order the part you need.
