PALO ALTO, CA (PRWEB) July 8, 2004 -- The TruckShark website is collecting truck reviews from truck owners to create the world's most-trusted truck guide. Reviews may be submitted online, at the <http://www.truckshark.com> Internet address.

TruckShark is carefully screening incoming reviews before publishing them. Whether praising or damning, any review deemed sincere will be posted. TruckShark's editorial and submission guidelines are published at the <http://www.truckshark.com/about.htm> Internet address.

TruckShark's initiative to create a vault of raw, gloves-off truck reviews is a boon to consumers. A freely available, online collection of authenticated feedback will help truck buyers to make more intelligent truck buying decisions.

Launched in 2001, TruckShark is already an established brand with truck owners, buyers, dealers, and manufacturers. The website began as an Internet marketplace for used trucks.
