

Tourbillon Trailers Holds Open House that Benefits Turtle Rock Rescue

Turtle Rock Rescue, Fitzwilliam, NH, which rescues equines from the US and beyond, benefits from an open house at the Tourbillon Horse Farm--the home of Toubillon Trailers.

(PRWEB) July 10, 2004 -- Tourbillon Trailers recently held an open house to celebrate their new association with Sooner Trailers. The event for horse lovers was held from 9AM to 4PM at the Tourbillon Horse Farm on Snake Hill Road in North Scituate, RI.

The day included food, prizes, games and safety seminars given by Joseph Quintero of Tourbillon Trailers. In addition to the celebration, President of Tourbillon Trailers Jay Forge presented a check for $500 to Kenneth J. Terry, President of Turtle Rock Rescue, Inc.; an organization that rescues abused and unwanted animals. Turtle Rock is a no kill animal shelter that rehabilitates and/or finds the animals appropriate homes. "Growing up around horses, my family has been involved in supporting animal shelters since I can remember. Turtle Rock is a great organization and we are please that they could be here with us today."

With locations in RI and NY, Tourbillon Trailers offers a large inventory of new and pre-owned trailers from Exiss, Hawk, Jamco and Bison, in addition to the newly acquired Sooner line. Tourbillon Trailers began selling top of the line horse trailers and has since expanded to include commercial and recreational trailers including those for landscaping and ATV transportation.
