Alexandria, VA (PRWEB) August 5, 2004 -- Before you waste time on hold, or long lines in D.C waiting for your bus to New York at the Hound, check with Betsy Tours & Travel, a local minority owned charter bus company servicing the Northern VA area and MD. Beginning August 24, 2004 the charter will begin service to the sleepless city offering its passengers options similar to the Hound, but without the hassle of lines and possible layovers. Riders may select Tues, Thurs, Fri or Saturday trips departing from Beacon & River Town Malls, located in Alexandria (Fairfax Co. Rt. 1) and Oxon Hill (P.G Co. St. Barnabus Rd.), respectively that will drop them off at 34th & Broadway (Manhattan, NYC). From there passengers have the option to leave the bus indefinitely or return with the carrier after 8 leisure hours in the lively city.

When asked why they would charge such a low price in a time when gas prices are at their highest the owner Willie Starling replied, "Because its time that the Northern VA & MD area was served with the best travel services without the chaos, traffic is crazy coming into D.C especially during rush hour, which seems to get earlier and earlier every day."

Accessibility to the locations was a major concern for the charter. While both locations are close in proximity to one another, they offer convenient pick-ups from both ends of the Woodrow Wilson Bridge and just a hop, skip, and jump from any quadrant of D.C.

Betsy Tours & Travel is a member of the ABA (American Bus Association) with uniformed drivers. Their offices are open Monday-Friday 9-5 pm. Ticket prices for the ride is $35 round-trip & $20 one-way with non-stop service to the Big Apple.
