Weymouth, MA (PRWEB) May 28, 2005 -- Humboldt Storage and Moving of Canton, Mass., greater Boston's largest United Van Lines agent, recently announced several new additions to their talented team.

Adam Smith, a resident of North Attleboro, MA has joined Humboldt Storage and Moving as a Local Dispatcher. Prior to Humboldt, Smith spent a number of years working in the Dispatch and Accounting departments of a local mover. Smith will be responsible for Humboldt's day-to-day dispatch operations of local transportation services and third party contractors.

Kim Gale, a resident of Canton, MA, has been appointed as Humboldt's new Quality Administrator. Gale previously worked as a customer service representative and administrative assistant for a number of years. In her new position at Humboldt, she will be responsible for processing claims as well as monitoring customer surveys and generating internal and external reports.

Joyce Hoisington has been named an International Relocation Coordinator at Humboldt and will be responsible for coordinating international relocations. For the past seven years, Hoisington worked for a large, local school supply company in the customer service department where, among other duties, she coordinated trade shows. Hoisington is a resident of Weymouth, MA.

Jennifer Forrand has been promoted to the position of Billing Coordinator at Humboldt where she will be responsible for account billing. Prior to her move to the Accounting department, Forrand worked as a dispatcher in Operations at Humboldt.

Century-old Moving History

Owned and operated by the third generation of Goldman family, Humboldt celebrates their 100th anniversary this year. Proudly catering to commercial and residential clients' relocation and storage needs since 1905, Humboldt Storage and Moving has been recognized by Governor Mitt Romney and Lieutenant Governor Kerry Healey for their efforts in helping millions of people relocate to Massachusetts over the past 100 years.

Nationally recognized, Humboldt Storage and Moving ranks in the top 10 percent of domestic United Van Lines agents. United Van Lines, Inc., headquartered in Missouri, is the world leader in the moving industry of over 500 agents.
