

Humboldt Storage & Moving Celebrates 100 Years with Governor's Proclamation

Humboldt Storage and Moving, greater Boston's largest United Van Lines agent will celebrate their 100th anniversary this year. Humboldt has catered to commercial and residential clients' needs since 1905 and was recognized for their efforts by Governor Mitt Romney and Lieutenant Governor Kerry Healey on January 1, 2005.

Canton, MA (PRWEB) June 22, 2005 -- Humboldt Storage and Moving, greater Boston's largest United Van Lines agent located in Canton, Mass., celebrates their 100th anniversary this year. Owned and Operated by the third generation of Goldman family, Humboldt has proudly catered to commercial and residential clients' relocation and storage needs since 1905.

On January 1, 2005, Humboldt Storage and Moving was recognized by Governor Mitt Romney and Lieutenant Governor Kerry Healey for their efforts in helping millions of people relocate to Massachusetts over the past 100 years.

Humboldt Storage and Moving's commitment to customers has enabled them to remain within the top 5% of all United Van Lines agents for sales volume for the past ten years. Catering to a number of specialized markets, Humboldt has become a leader in assisting seniors with sensitive down-sizing relocations; coordinating highly technical lab and hospital moves; time-sensitive office relocations; college relocations as well as household relocations that are around the block or around the world.

The company has grown exponentially over the years, and now has more than 90 employees. Committed to their employees, Humboldt offers comprehensive benefits to attract and retain motivated employees - ranging from health and dental insurance, profit sharing and retirement programs to stress management, weight loss workshops and educational reimbursement programs. In addition to benefit programs, Humboldt also holds an annual celebratory "Van Operators Appreciation Week" as well as numerous award ceremonies throughout the year to recognize their employees' outstanding efforts and performance.

"It's an honor to receive the governor's proclamation and we're very excited about celebrating our 100th anniversary," noted Darcy Goldman, President of Humboldt Storage and Moving.
