Arlington, VA (PRWEB) September 7, 2004 -- The National Committee for Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR), an agency of the Department of Defense, and NASCAR Star Kerry Earnhardt will salute America's Supportive Employers when Earnhardt pilots the silver and blue ESGR #29 Air Force Reserve/Air National Guard car at the Dover International Speedway Stacker 200 Busch Series Race on September 25, 2004.

Earnhardt is the fourth of a NASCAR Dream Team of five drivers recruited by Richard Childress to Salute America's Supportive Employers of National Guardsmen and Reservists for a five-race NASCAR Busch Series. Previous NASCAR Dream Team drivers were Bobby Labonte, Tony Stewart and Ricky Craven.

"I am really excited about returning to the NASCAR Busch Series at Dover. It is an honor to be driving the number 29 ESGR car with the Air Force Reserve and Air National Guard paint scheme, especially with Dover Air Force Base near the track. I have been looking forward to my turn in the number #29 ESGR car for a while," said Kerry Earnhardt when asked what it meant to drive the ESGR #29 Air Force Reserve/Air National Guard Car.

"ESGR is excited to partner with Richard Childress Racing and the five NASCAR Dream Team of drivers that Richard has recruited to drive for America's Supportive Employers," said Bob Hollingsworth, ESGR Executive Director. "Today in support of the war on terrorism and the ongoing military operations in Iraq and Afghanistan, an essential alliance has been formed with the Department of Defense as many of America's employers have become inextricably linked to the nation's defense by sharing their most precious asset, their employees," added Hollingsworth.

The unique mission of ESGR is to gain and maintain active employer support from all public and private employers for the men and women of the Guard and Reserve as defined by demonstrated employer commitment to employee military service.
