Xtreme Wheels International at the Alexandra Palace, London, on the 19th and 20th February 2005 is a must for all motoring enthusiasts with an eye for the unusual and who breathe the fumes of the pit lane.

(PRWEB) September 14, 2004 -- From the conventional to the collectable, the weird to the wonderful, Xtreme Wheels International Â taking place at Alexandra Palace, London, on the 19th and 20th February 2005 Â will Âinspire and wowÂ with its presentation of automotive power, bringing together under one roof the most exciting mix of extreme machinery imaginable.

From 10,000 horse-powered cars equipped with Strike Fighter jet engines to Top Fuel bikes that hit 100 mph in 1.1 seconds, the very best of European drag racing, hot and street rods, custom and performance cars will be represented alongside the UKÂs top mods, imports, paint jobs and chrome.

The 2005 show promises two days of wall-to-wall motoring madness with live action, demos, trade stands and glamour!

Xtreme Wheels International is a must for all motoring enthusiasts with an eye for the unusual and who breathe the fumes of the pit lane.
