Marlton, NJ (PRWEB) April 29, 2005 -- Groove Motorsports, together with sponsors Freedom Builders Philadelphia Region will field the #07 NASCAR Craftsman Truck in this Saturday's Dodge Ram Tough 200 at the Gateway International Raceway in St. Louis, MO.

"We are proud to represent Freedom Builders as our primary sponsor," said team partner Edward DuCoin. Freedom Builders Philadelphia Region is a revolutionary new networking and business strategy group that helps companies increase sales and profits. Christina Roe, Senior Partner of Freedom Builders added, "We teach A New Way to Sell that reveals breakthrough sales and networking techniques designed to produce dramatic results and expand business relationships. We know that NASCAR appeals to a wide market and that's why we wanted to sponsor Sean Murphy driver of the #07 truck."

Driver Sean Murphy stated, "I look forward to a great race and Freedom Builders Philadelphia is a great sponsor. This is my second race with Freedom Builders and we want a good showing for them and our points race."

The race will be televised on the Speed Channel Saturday April 30 at 8pm ET. Sean Murphy is currently in 21st in points in the Craftsman Truck Series for the 2005 season.
