Palo Alto, CA (PRWEB) January 31, 2005 -- TruckShark, the world's most-trusted online truck guide, has begun offering free truck for sale ads on its website. Truck owners can post a free truck for sale ad by visiting www.truckshark.com.

Founded in 2001, the TruckShark website is a trusted resource for truck owners, truck dealers, and truck buyers. The site contains truck owner-written truck reviews, as well as a well-organized collection of free truck-for-sale classifieds. The site focuses on trucks located in the United States.

TruckShark's free truck for sale classified advertising section is organized primarily by make, and secondarily by location. Advertisers are able to post a price, description, contact email address, and contact telephone number, all at no charge. Ad titles are limited to fifty characters, including spaces and punctuation.

TruckShark's truck reviews, written by real truck owners, are unabashedly candid. TruckShark takes pains to research incoming truck reviews before posting them. TruckShark's reviews section is a useful resource for people considering the purchase of a new or used truck. TruckShark's reviews section can be accessed free of charge at the www.truckshark.com Internet address.
