

TruckShark.com Enhances Truck-for-Sale Search Functionality

TruckShark.com, the world's most-trusted online truck guide, has enhanced its truck-for-sale search functionality by adding state indexing. Truck dealers and private parties alike may list trucks for sale at no charge on TruckShark.com by visiting the www.truckshark.com Internet address.

Palo Alto, CA (PRWEB) May 18, 2005 -- TruckShark.com, the world's most-trusted online truck guide, has enhanced its truck-for-sale search functionality by adding state indexing.

Truck buyers can now find trucks for sale on TruckShark.com in two ways. Using the original way, they can search primarily by make, and secondarily by state. Using the new way, they can search primarily by state, and secondarily by make. Both methods are easily accessible from the TruckShark.com homepage.

Truck dealers and private parties alike may list trucks for sale at no charge on TruckShark.com by visiting the www.truckshark.com Internet address.

Since launching its free truck-for-sale program last January, TruckShark.com has helped to sell used trucks in most U.S. states. Trucks currently listed for sale on TruckShark.com include models from Chevrolet, Dodge, Ford, Freightliner, GMC, International, Isuzu, Nissan, and Peterbilt.

Truck sellers are able to post a price, description, contact email address, and contact telephone number, all at no charge. Ad titles are limited to fifty characters, including spaces and punctuation.

Founded in 2001, TruckShark.com is a trusted resource for truck owners, truck dealers, and truck buyers. The website focuses on trucks located in the United States. Neither TruckShark.com nor its parent SharkPage is affiliated with any of the aforementioned truck manufacturers.
