(PRWEB) September 28, 2004 -- Carrollton, Texas -- ENGINETECH has begun its fourth quarter Master Engine Kit promotion: KIT-O-RAMA BUY & FLY. The promotion will run until December 24, 2004, and is open to all current and new customers. Professional Engine Builders and Machine Shops purchasing new Master Engine Kits receive an entry for every kit purchased. Drawings are held on the first day of the month from entries received in the month prior for Second Prizes: the winner's choice of a $250 Gift Card to either Bass Pro Shops or Snap-On Tools.

On December 24, 2004, a Grand Prize Drawing from ALL entries received will be held, the winner to receive a weekend package to The Daytona 500. The trip includes airfare, hotel and transportation to race events.

About Enginetech:

In business since 1980, Enginetech is the leading supplier of engine parts designed for the professional engine rebuilder. Enginetech supplies the industry with a complete line of parts that are designed to work together in a better than OEM environment.

Their innovative part numbering, inventory and application system allows customers to use fewer part numbers over a wider range of applications resulting in a deeper range of coverage than their competition. With over 15 distribution points, they are able to supply over 80% of North America with 1-day regular ground service.
