

Thousand Oaks Auto Mall Hosts Community Party to Celebrate $1 Million Gift to Local Schools: A Free Day of Fun for all Local Families

While drastic budget cuts continue to affect schools throughout California, dealers at the Thousand Oaks Auto Mall today announced they have reached the goal of $1 million donated to local schools and are throwing a party for the entire community to celebrate how well the schools have used this gift to improve educational standards. It's a free day of fun for all local families, Sunday, November 7, 11 am-3:00 pm at the Thousand Oaks Auto Mall.

(PRWEB) October 26, 2004 -- WHAT: While drastic budget cuts continue to affect schools throughout California, dealers at the Thousand Oaks Auto Mall today announced they have reached the goal of $1 million donated to local schools. The Auto mall is throwing a party for the entire community to celebrate how well the schools have used this gift to improve educational standards.

It's a free day of fun for all local families, Sunday, November 7, 11 am-3:00 pm at the Thousand Oaks Auto Mall.

- Booths from each school highlighting the success of a business/school partnership -- three schools have just been recognized as California Distinguished schools
- Live performances from 2 schools which have used the donations to sponsor music and drama programs
- PTA members and students available to discuss how this gift has positively affected their lives

In addition:

- Free pony rides
- Free face painting
- Clowns
- Petting Zoo
- Live performances by local schools
- Live DJ
- Bouncy House
- Free hot Dogs, Cotton Candy, Popcorn and sodas
- Free carnival games and prizes for the kids

WHEN: Sunday, November 7th, 11am-3pm

WHERE: The Thousand Oaks Auto Mall along Auto Mall Drive between Marmon and Auburn. Take the Westlake Exit off the 101.

For more information call: Sara Callahan 949-742-0477.

###

Contact Information*Sara Callahan

CARTER-WEST PUBLIC RELATIONS

949-493-0244

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.