

Carlisle Welcomes All GM Clubs - Calling All Oldsmobile, Pontiac, Chevy, Buick and Cadillac Clubs

Club gatherings wanted at the Carlisle All-GM Nationals, June 24-26, 2005

CARLISLE, PA (PRWEB) November 3, 2004 -- Is your club tired of looking for sites to hold your regional or national events? Do you need help coordinating activities, entertainment and vendors? Carlisle Events and the Carlisle All-GM Nationals can help.

Carlisle, Pa., home of some of the largest collector car swap meets in the world, also offers a number of specialty events. One of these is the Carlisle All-GM Nationals, held June 24-26, 2005. This show is relatively new and has not yet consumed our 82-acre facility. There is still plenty of room for clubs to hold their regional or national gatherings. Plus, the All-GM Nationals already includes swap-meet shopping, free seminars, children's activities, women's activities and much more to help entertain your club members.

Carlisle Events offers on-grounds catering, camping, trailer parking, clean restrooms and a friendly professional staff to provide you with a fun-filled weekend. Other attractions at the Carlisle All-GM Nationals include concept vehicles, special guests such as famous race car drivers and General Motors' executives, classic GM original vehicles, a beauty contest, evening movies in the Food Court and a worship service Sunday morning.

The Carlisle Events' staff works closely with hotels and can help clubs secure a host hotel for special gatherings. Carlisle staff can also help clubs arrange for special off-site activities such as scenic drives, museum tours, ice cream cruises and more.

Central Pennsylvania is filled with interesting destination points such as historic bed & breakfasts, Gettysburg Battlefields, Hersheypark and Chocolate World, Antique Auto Club of America Museum, Eastern Museum of Motor Racing, race tracks and dragways, vineyards, AA baseball, drive-in movie theaters, Lancaster's Amish country and much more. Visit www.hersheycapitalregion.com to see more things to do in Central PA. Carlisle is also a short drive away from Baltimore, Philadelphia and Washington, D.C.

The Carlisle staff has experience hosting clubs at its events; many Ford and Chrysler clubs have enjoyed holding their club gatherings at the Carlisle All-Ford and All-Chrysler Nationals for a number of years. Carlisle Events can provide your club with a wonderful experience.

Interested club officials should contact Lisa Leathery, director of event planning and management, at (717) 243-7855, ext. 122; lisal@carsatcarlisle.com; or Carlisle Events, 1000 Bryn Mawr Road, Carlisle, PA 17013.

See www.carsatcarlisle.com or call (717) 243-7855 for more information on Carlisle Events.

Carlisle Events, host of at least 10 collector car, truck and motorcycle events each year, attracts more than half a million people to its 82-acre fairgrounds in Carlisle, Pa., each year. Included in the annual schedule are two huge automotive swap meets and individual specialty shows featuring Corvettes, Fords, GMs, Chryslers, trucks, motorcycles, sport compacts and imports. Founded in 1974 by friends Bill Miller and Chip Miller, the 'Cars at Carlisle' shows attract automotive enthusiasts from around the world.

###

Contact Information

Becky Hein

CARLISLE EVENTS

<http://www.carsatcarlisle.com>

717-243-7855

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.