at AutoPartsPlace.com*

Diamond Bar, CA (PRWEB) January 13, 2005 -- AutoPartsplace.com and Ansa Original Equipment Exhaust Systems & Mufflers introduce a new line of direct-fit stainless steel exhaust systems called Silverline. This hot new exhaust system has available applications for Acura Integra & RSX, Honda Accord, Civic and Prelude, Hyundai Tiburon, Mazda Miata, Subaru WRX, Toyota Celica, and VW Golf, Jetta, the new Beetle, and many more makes and models.

Each Silverline exhaust system is made of top quality T304 stainless steel and bolts on for easy installation. It comes complete with a removable baffle for customized sound on select top quality T304 stainless steel that is Mandrel bent to fit like a glove. Recent chassis dyno test results show improved performance. For example: an RSX Type-S gained 9 horsepower, six pounds of torque, and an amazing sound just by adding this new exhaust. These systems are also stamped or welded to match OE specifications and are fully aluminized for durable performance.

In celebration of the release of this new exhaust system by Ansa, Auto Parts Place is offering huge discounts of up to 80% on all exhaust systems and mufflers by Ansa, Bosch, Bosal, Starla, Eberspaecher and more.

AutoPartsPlace.com not only offers the new Silverline Stainless Steel Exhaust by Ansa, but also a huge selection of OEM, aftermarket, rebuilt and used auto parts for cars ranging from Mercedes to Hondas to just about every make and model that you are looking for.
