

RideOnTime.com Retains Cooley Godward LLP as Outside Counsel

RideOnTime.com, who leads the integration of the ground transportation industry into the online travel market, has retained Steve Przesmicki of Cooley Godward, LLP as outside counsel.

Denver, CO (PRWEB) January 18, 2005 -- RideOnTime.com, who leads the integration of the ground transportation industry into the online travel market, has retained Steve Przesmicki of Cooley Godward, LLP as outside counsel. Cooley Godward's attorneys are counselors, strategists and advocates for the foremost private and public companies across a wide variety of industries and in all major technology fields. Clients include entrepreneurs, venture capitalists, financial service organizations and research institutions. Cooley has 500 attorneys practicing in more than 20 industries.

Mr. Przesmicki's practice encompasses a wide range of business and corporate matters, including general representation of public and private companies, private financings, public offerings and mergers and acquisitions. From 1999 to 2001, Mr. Przesmicki was Vice President of Legal Affairs at MP3.com, Inc.

"Steve and our COO Rod Underhill worked closely with one another at MP3.com, this is advantageous for us to leverage their existing relationship," says Nicholas Chavez, CEO of RideOnTime.com. "Cooley has been instrumental in aggregating capital and launching IPOs for some of the brightest emerging tech companies, and continually assists in negotiating contracts on the behalf of Internet giants such as Cisco, Overture and Yahoo!" Mr. Przesmicki is a partner with Cooley Godward's San Diego office.
