Wallbanger Fantasy Racing, the pole sitter of online fantasy racing leagues, has tuned up the Race4Cash.com website and is ready to roll for the 2005 NASCAR Nextel Cup Series racing season. More content, better prizes and an all around better experience for race fans.

(PRWEB) January 27, 2005 -- The 2005 NASCAR Nextel Cup Series season is just around the corner and Wallbanger Fantasy Racing is ready to roll. Online since 1996, the Race4Cash.com website has been tuned up with a new database application that provides more speed and stability and allows, virtually, an unlimited number of users. The 2005 season starts February 20th with the Daytona 500.

Wallbanger Fantasy Racing offers a variety of fantasy racing leagues based on the NASCAR Nextel Cup Series, America's most popular racing series. Contestants compete by using their knowledge of drivers, teams and tracks in order to win prizes and tickets to races.

Wallbanger Fantasy Racing, which can be found on the information super speedway at <http://www.race4cash.com>, also offers race fans a place to get the latest NASCAR Nextel Cup Series headlines, locate collectibles and merchandise of their favorite drivers and find tickets to races and information on race tracks.

Wallbanger Fantasy Racing offers free and pay-to-play leagues. There are limited and unlimited pay-to-play leagues. Limited leagues offer contestants the best chance of winning prizes including the grand prize of two tickets to the 2006 Daytona 500. The unlimited free fantasy racing league is available to race fans of all ages.

Wallbanger Fantasy Racing's leagues are easy to use and fun to play. Simply pick the drivers you feel will finish best out of each category for each race. Sit back, enjoy the race, and cheer on your favorite driver. Check back when the race is over to see where you rank in the standings.

Future plans include fantasy racing administration services where you can host and administer your own fantasy racing league for fun or profit. This service should be available by mid-season. Also on the drawing board is Headbanger Fantasy Football, a simplified fantasy football league without the salary caps and requirements of knowing every player on every team in the NFL. Headbanger Fantasy Football will be available for the start of the 2005 NFL season which kicks-off September 8th.
