

WINFUEL Inks Multi-Year Busch and Nextel Deal with Hmiel and Braun Racing

WINFUEL, a soon-to-be-released consumer product dedicated to those whose lives are committed to one thing — WINNING, is proud to announce its multi-year primary sponsorship of Braun Racing's #32 Chevrolet in the 2005 NASCAR Busch Series and the #08 Chevrolet NASCAR Nextel Cup Series car for seven races. Shane Hmiel will be the driver in both NASCAR series.

Cedar Knolls, NJ (PRWEB) February 12, 2005 -- WINFUEL, a soon-to-be-released consumer product dedicated to those whose lives are committed to one thing — winning, is proud to announce its multi-year primary sponsorship of Braun Racing's #32 Chevrolet in the 2005 NASCAR Busch Series and the #08 Chevrolet NASCAR Nextel Cup Series car for seven races. Shane Hmiel will be the driver in both NASCAR series.

In 2002, Hmiel finished fifth in his NASCAR Busch Series Daytona debut and was the NASCAR Goody's Dash Rookie of the Year for 2001 with two wins and 13 top 10 finishes. Braun Racing is also proud to announce that Dale Earnhardt, Inc. will be providing the power plants under the hood of all Braun Racing's Chevrolets. Braun Racing knows that strong partnerships are an advantage over the competition and WINFUEL gives them the edge that they need to be in Victory Lane as they head for the championship.

WINFUEL will soon be available at fine retail locations, at every race in the WINFUEL merchandise trailer, and at www.winfuel.com. The product launch will be supported by national television advertising campaign.
