

Tell All Book on Corruption in The US. District Court, Brooklyn and The NYS DMV Commissioner by Plaintiff Author.

A New Tell All Book has been reached with the Author of the Book, Plaintiff Pro Se DJ Donnelly of New York and PGDC Publishing Group LLC, div of pgdc entertainment group llc. The book is about his law suit filed against the Commissioner of the NYS DMV, the Corruption, the Brotherhood and the Denials to a NY Drivers Rights.

(PRWEB) February 18, 2005 -- The Title, "CV-02-5344" The DJ Donnelly Story (c) has been approved for a book deal by PGDC Publishing to have the tell all book inform the readers of the Corruotion between the NYS DMV office, it's Commissioner, defendant, Raymond P Martinez, and Federal Judges, Sandra L Townes, John Gleeson and Lois Bloom.

Donnelly filed the case in the United States District Court in Oct of 2001 as a Pro Se. Donnelly made several attempts from appeals, reconsiderations, to have his perfect drivers license renewed to defedant Martinez, all refused. The case was filed for $500,000 in damages, plus renewal of the license. The Court denied all of Donnelly's Motions, Exhibits, and Evidence , Martinez's lawyer, State Attorney General Elliott Spitzer, who is running for Governor of NYS filed only ONE Motion to Dismiss which was granted by Townes. Donnelly even had evidence of a perfect license from three other states, was not allowed to be entered. Sandra L Townes from South Carolina, a graduate of Syracuse University College of LAW, finally dismissed the case on Feb 11, 2004 after 3.5 years as "MOOT" which means unreal. When you cannot earn a living, have rights to life, we quess this is "MOOT"??

Book is due out in 2006 nationally.
