Middlesbrough UK (PRWEB) March 3, 2005 -- Two lucky Professional drivers will soon be experiencing life as a truck driver in the USA. David Phillips and Ray (Bob) White, both from London won a trip to America run jointly by Truck & Driver Magazine and www.TruckNetUK.com.

At the end of March David ( who won the Truck & Driver section of the competition) will be flying to Atlanta to meet up with his host, an Owner Operator who travels the US highways in a show winning Kenworth rig, Bob (The TruckNet UK winner) will be travelling to Ohio to meet up with a British ex-pat driver to experience the life as a coal haulier.

After a few days on the road , both will travel with their hosts to Louisville, Kentucky, where VIP tickets to the USA's biggest truck show await. Both Bob and David will be able to experience the Mid America Truck Show ( www.truckingshow.com ) , and relax at the luxurious Executive West Hotel close to the show ground in the Evenings.

At Louisville Bob and David will be accompanied by other members of the TruckNet UK website, and members from the USA www.Truck.Net site who have made their own way to attend the massive show.

Rikki Chequer, Joint managing Director of TruckNet UK said, "It is great that Britain's favourite trucking magazine and the biggest website for drivers could work together to give Bob and David the opportunity to see the way of life of the American truck driver, and then to see the incredible truck show at Louisville .

Many people in the industry, both here and in the USA came together to ensure this unique event happened, But special mention must go to Bob Holsombeck in Atlanta and Shaun Andrews in Ohio for be willing to be the hosts.

Both David and Bob will be leaving the UK on March 26th for their trip of a lifetime.
