

Nationwide Delivery Company Joins 4SameDay's Network of Couriers

CD&L, a national full service, same day delivery and logistics company, today announced their new relationship with the 4SameDay Courier Network for their west coast operations.

Dallas, TX (PRWEB) March 10, 2005 -- CD&L, a national full service, same day delivery and logistics company, today announced their new relationship with the 4SameDay Courier Network for their west coast operations.

CD&L provides customers with varied same-day, on demand, distribution and logistics solutions. Today's need for customized, technologically smart, cost-effective transportation solutions enables CD&L to partner with customers who want to receive the considerable benefits of outsourcing, while maximizing cost containment and improving service quality.

4SameDay is North America's premier independent courier network receiving an average of 20,000 hits per month by customers looking for same-day delivery services. Courier companies benefit from this network by providing services to customers looking for local or national delivery work. In addition, 4SameDay provides nationwide advertising to those courier companies as well as a network of professional couriers across the US to partner with; therefore increasing their service area and capabilities.

"We are pleased to be a part of the 4SameDay Courier Network along the West coast," says Paul Calabro, Vice President, West Region. "Our goal is to bring in new customers and increase the visibility of our services through extended internet advertising. The 4SameDay network assists us in doing that," says Calabro.

Having companies like CD&L on our network for the West Region greatly increases the value of the network to our customers across the US," says Mary Meredith, Director of Sales & Marketing, 4SameDay. "We are very pleased with the new relationship and look forward to assisting CD&L with their growth goals," says Meredith.
