

Travel Expert and Author Lori Hein Comes to BoomerWomenSpeak.com's May Travel Forum

Talk travel online with Lori Hein, world travel expert and author of "Ribbons of Highway: A Mother-Child Journey Across America"

(PRWEB) March 15, 2005 -- Meet travel expert Lori Hein at Boomerwomenspeak.com. Hein, author of "Ribbons of Highway: A Mother-Child Journey Across America," will be on hand at the site's Travel Forum during May to discuss her book and to answer questions about trip planning, cross-country journeys, great American places, international destinations, going solo, family and intergenerational travel, women traveling.

Hein brings over 25 years of travel and writing experience to the forum. After September 11, the globetrotting writer, who's visited some 60 countries, took her two children on a 12,000-mile back road journey into the heart of America, discovering the country's majesty, humanity and resilience. "Ribbons of Highway" is the book that grew from the trio's odyssey. "Ribbons" may inspire you to dream of or plan a trip across this vast, marvelous land or help recapture memories of a journey already taken.
