(PRWEB) March 24, 2005 -- NZ Hot Rod Magazine breaks new ground with today's launch of its new Hot Rod and Muscle Car forum and discussion site on the net at www.nzhotrodmag.co.nz. The Forum is an electronic message board that allows users to communicate and have continuing dialogue within the hot rod fraternity on virtually any topic. Just register and join in on the conversations, share your insights, ask questions, search for parts, leave feedback on the magazine or just bench race with other rodders and racers.

The forum is located at www.nzhotrodmag.co.nz and has a full host of features and topics can be easily navigated. Join in and talk about your favorites, whether it's a 32 Ford Hi Boy, a T Bucket, a Corvette, or anywhere in between, this is place to share in on the fun! Enjoy!

Launched in 1967, New Zealand Hot Rod magazine is New Zealand's longest established on-sale automotive periodical, and claims it retains a readership whose loyalty to the title literally spans decades.
