

Truckdriver.com and DotJobHistory.com Announce Verification Service

Truckdriver.com and DotJobHistory.com announce service to offer employers web applications with credentialed drivers.

Isanti, MN (PRWEB) March 26, 2005 -- Truckdriver.com (www.truckdriver.com) is happy to announce its partnership with TIES, LLC which operates www.DOTJobHistory.com.

Drivers who fill out an on-line application with Truckdriver.com may now order information on themselves that they can review for accuracy and completeness. Drivers are able to make their information available to prospective employers over the web along with their application.

Employers may access the verified information instantly to help quickly determine the applicants that best fit their qualification standards.

The basic information includes a social security number validity review, a criminal record (including violent and sexual offender) database search of over 100 million records, a civil record database search and a search of the National Driver Register.

Drivers can also choose a premium option which will enable them to receive their own MVR and employment history and can choose to include them in the on-line portfolio they submit to prospective employers.

Â□Truckdriver.com was one of the first to offer motor carriers applications over the web," said Brian Thomforde, President of Truckdriver.com. "Now, we are taking the next step ☐ improving the quality of t	he applications. $\hat{\mathbf{A}}\Box$

According to Derek Hinton, CEO of DOTJobHistory.com, $\hat{A} \square$ Motor carriers have to evaluate a lot of applications, spending money to determine whether an applicant meets their needs. In addition this takes time, and companies need to quickly focus their efforts on the most qualified drivers. DOTJobHistory addresses both issues. $\hat{A} \square$
