

Why Would Anyone Race a Saturn? Vandomotorsports.org is Now Dedicated Supplier of Saturn Performance and Racing Parts

Vandomotorsports Racing Development LLC is proud to announce the release of its improved web site dedicated to only Saturn owners who are searching for Saturn high performance and racing parts. Recently Saturn cars have been claiming regional and national championships with teams like Thundersport Racing, SCR Motorsports, Lisa Kubo in her Saturn drag car, SCP/GF Racing and the Vandomotorsports Racing Development Team. Now every Saturn owner has access to a complete selection of Saturn high performance parts and accessories for every Saturn car.

Nashua, NH (PRWEB) March 27, 2005 -- Vandomotorsports.org is please to have completed their web improvement project by making it easy to find and pay for Saturn performance and racing parts. During the past 8 months they have added additional suppliers including SPS for the traditional cold air intakes, exhaust systems, suspension, and vando aluminum radiators. The exciting new additions to the site are body kits, power packages, Lambo door kits, canards, even ZEX nitrous oxide. Recently on March 12. 2005, the well know Vandomotorsports 55mm throttle body was discussed on the SPC site with a member saying the throttle body was used in the Grassroots $2004 Challenge and was easy on, easy off, no trouble at all and the car had plenty of pep Â 15.334 in the Â¼ mile.

Vandomotorsports.org has taken the next step in Saturn performance parts by not only offering just performance parts, but has now included parts for the new ION and VUE. Currently they are working on gathering information so they are ready with performance parts when the Sky and Curve Saturn cars are unveiled. In addition to performance parts, Chris Thomas has some outstanding tech information he has agreed to share with all Saturn owners and that information is available on our tech page at <http://www.vandomotorsports.org/id31.html>.

The Vandomotorsports Racing Development Saturn SL2 finished the 2004 season as the SCCA NER Solo II Division Champion in DSP, Second in Race Modified class with the SCCNH club and third in the 23rd Annual East Coast Camaro Club show in Race Class. This season promises to be even better with the addition of Brad Kellet and Taylor Lowe racing their SL2 under the Vandomotorsports banner. The performance products they sell, they use in their cars. They invite you to visit their web site at <http://vandomotorsports.org> to meet all your Saturn performance and racing needs.
