

Auto Driveaway Company of Baltimore Gains First Minority Owner

Auto Driveaway Company announces the acquisition of the Baltimore, Maryland franchise by CMS & Son, LLC. CMS & Son, LLC is owned and operated by Mr. Cyril M. Scovens and Mr. Dwayne J. Berry. Mr. Scovens and Mr. Berry represent the first minority franchise owners in the history of the 53 year old company

Baltimore, MD (PRWEB) April 3, 2005 -- Auto Driveaway Company headquartered in Chicago, Illinois will turn over the reigns of its Baltimore Office to CMS & Son, LLC owned by Mr. Cyril M. Scovens and Mr. Dwayne J. Berry. Mr. Scovens and Mr. Berry break ground as the first minority owners in the history of the 52 year-old company.

The Baltimore office is the heartbeat of the company with annual net revenues in excess of $650,000.00. The dynamic duo, of Mr. Scovens and Mr. Berry, has managed the company for the past two years in a transitional period.

“Dwayne and I started as drivers, me about nine years ago and Dwayne about six years ago. As the company transitioned through two owners, we maintained and ran the daily operations of the business. We believe that Auto Driveaway Company of Baltimore will grow to new heights and that’s why we came on board as owners,” said Mr. Scovens. “The move from managers to owners enables us to utilize a new and diverse directive for growing the business that will reverberate throughout the region,” said Mr. Berry.
