

WisconsinLinks.com Has Launched WisconsinTrucking.com

WisconsinLinks.com, a local portal and web directory, has launched WisconsinTrucking.com to provide drivers with local resources.

Milwaukee, WI (PRWEB) April 22, 2005 -- WisconsinLinks.com, a local portal and web directory, has launched WisconsinTrucking.com to provide drivers with local resources.

The new website is designed to be an informational web directory for professional drivers. The web site provides drivers with valuable information with an emphasis on news, safety, and jobs. The site also features links to live fuel prices, maps, and events.

WisconsinTrucking.com has partnered with WisconsinJobs.com to power a career resource for drivers and those exploring a career in transportation.

Wisconsin is currently experiencing a labor shortage for drivers. WisconsinTrucking.com will aid local companies in their efforts to recruit and hire new drivers. For more information, visit <http://www.WisconsinTrucking.com>.

WisconsinLinks.com is a local portal and web directory featuring hundreds of local and regional web sites. Founded in 2004, WisconsinLinks.com has emerged as Wisconsin's leading web directory.
