

Mainely Motorsports TV to Launch on UPN

Maine's only privately produced motor sports TV show hits the air on UPN35 this Saturday morning at 10 AM.

(PRWEB) April 29, 2005 -- Mainely Motorsports Television announced today that a deal with Maine's UPN35 will kick off officially on Saturday, April 30th at 10AM.

John Crawford, President of MMSTV was quoted: "We are very excited that UPN was able to add us to the Saturday morning lineup. This will mean a lot more exposure but more importantly expand our viewership into southern Maine.

The Company's VP, Jerret Condon stated "Mainely Motorsports is growing quickly and we will be filming everything we can. From Import tuner shows and Nextel Cup races to the Maine Motocross Series and the best of local circle track action, we aim to bring it to you."

The show aims to cover all types of events and explores the diversity of motorsports. "We want our viewers to see it all" said Crawford, "if people are ridin' it, roddin' it racin, it or showin'it, if its got an engine, we want on the show.

"Response to the show has been awesome. said Condon, "Our fans love us and watch often but we are producing a show that truely lives and grows because of it's sponsors.

Mainely Motorsports also has a premier website at www.mainelymotorsportstv.com and encourages input from fans through the "feedback" section of the site.

The show is hosted weekly by John Crawford and Marco Thomas, Editor of the well known publication, "Racin' Paper." Produced in cooperation with Adelphia Cable Network, the show films in the studio weekly and strives to cover events throughout New England.
