

Scientist Make Amazing Fuel Discovery that Can Improve Gas Mileage Up to 35% While Cutting Dangerous Exhaust Emissions Up to 80%

Scientists are calling EnviroMax Plus Fuel Catalyst the greatest automotive discovery of our time. Savings up to 50 cents per gallon of gas while protecting the environment.

(PRWEB) May 4, 2005 -- The automotive world is raving about EnviroMax Plus which is marketed exclusively by Extreme Research Corporation of Dallas Texas.

EnviroMax Plus is a revolutionary fuel catalyst, not to be confused with the thousands of existing additive products and gadgets already on the market. It has been used successfully for over 9 years by thousands of people, as well as city governments, large trucking lines, railroads, farming, and boating companies.

□ The fact is our country is a country that depends a great deal on cars and trucks for our mode of transportation. With the price of gas inching up every day getting closer and closer to $3.00/gal in many parts of the country it is becoming more important to look for ways to help reduce gas consumption in a way that is healthy for the environment. With the US Patented product EnviroMax Plus Fuel Catalyst, everyone who drives a car or truck has it within their power to save money at the gas pumps. □

□ The EnviroMax Plus is a unique product that will impact air quality and fuel economy worldwide. The poisons that are released by a car or truck exhaust are poisoning and destroying our environment and our health □ says Ray Ritchie, a leading authority on fuel conservation and co-partner with Extreme Research Corporation. □

Documented results of EnviroMax Plus Fuel Catalyst:

1. Increased fuel mileage up to 35% on your vehicle, which could save you over .50 cents per gal or $10.00 per fill-up at the gas pumps.
2. Reduce dangerous vehicle emissions by up to 80% which is poisoning our air.
3. Save on engine repairs and/or tune-ups by reduced engine wear and tear.
4. Increased horsepower and performance in either gas or diesel vehicle.
5. Will not harm engines or void any warranties on your vehicle.

This is truly a unique product which offers tremendous savings, stops the poisoning of our planet and is marketed through a growing network of independent representatives currently being sought after nationwide.
