CLEVELAND, OH (PRWEB) May 22, 2005 -- Northcutt Trucking, the Elyria-based trucking company, announced today that it has been awarded "Carrier of the Year" for 2004 by customer, C.H. Robinson, the Minnesota-based third party logistics company. The Cleveland office of C.H. Robinson chose five recipients to honor with the 2004 award.

"We are honored to have been chosen as a Carrier of the Year by C.H. Robinson," said Charlie Northcutt, President of Northcutt Trucking. "Being a small business owner, I certainly understand the relationship between providing great customer service and my bottom line. I try to treat my customers and employees like family and have enjoyed our relationship with C.H. Robinson. It is very rewarding to be honored in this way by a customer, especially when the customer is a long-standing, reputable company like C.H. Robinson. This means a great deal to all of us and we really are honored to be recognized in this way," he added.

"Northcutt Trucking has shown great dedication to both C.H. Robinson and our customers and should be used as a model for all carriers," said Steve Rozman, Operations Manager. "We sincerely appreciate the consistent and reliable approach of their people and recognize that their hard work is the foundation of success for both our companies. We look forward to our continued alliance with Northcutt Trucking and are pleased to honor them as a top carrier for 2004," he added.
