

Norman F. Taylor Esq. Offers the Definitive Book on the Lemon Law

Filled with practical information, "Lemonlaw - The Standard Reference Guide," ISBN 0-9760058-0-8 is a tool for laymen and legal professionals alike. Taylor's second book on the subject exposes all the dirty tricks manufacturers and dealers employ to get the consumer to give up and go away. Every aspect of this important consumer subject is examined. Thousands of new lemon cars and motor homes are sold every year. This carefully written book evens the playing field when consumers must take on manufacturers to exercise their rights.

(PRWEB) June 3, 2005 -- "Lemon law - The Standard Reference Guide" ISBN 0-9760058-0-8 by Norman F. Taylor is now available through your on-line bookseller or directly from Wallace Publishing. The price is $24.95 + shipping and handling. You may purchase via <http://lemonattorneys.com> or call 818-244-3905.

- If you paid a pot full of money for a new car and it's been at the dealer's over and over for the same problems,
- If you thought you bought quality and you got unrepairable defects,
- If you're scared to death to drive your car even after the dealer swears they fixed it,
- If you try to get help from the manufacturer or dealer and all you get is attitude and endless delays,
- If you are sent to a 'fair and balanced' arbitration and leave with nothing more than false promises and more delay,
- If you tell the dealer about the defects and are told the problems are your fault,
- If you buy a certified used car, with warranty, only to discover that it was a lemon buy back and the title has been 'laundered,'
- If you want to know what to do, when to get an attorney involved, and so much more,

Then you need to read:

"Lemon Law - The Standard Reference Guide" by Norman F. Taylor

You have rights! You have quite a few in fact. You can and you should fight the indifference of automobile manufacturers and dealers.

Ed Masry Esq., Lead Attorney in the landmark case, Hinckley v. PG&E; profiled in the movie Erin Brockovich said, "This book takes a very real look at the misery consumers endure whose lemon cars and RVs force them to take on the manufacturers. When you read the book, you will learn all the tricks employed by manufacturers and dealers to deprive you of your rights."

In sensible language this book gives you answers to all the common questions and to questions you haven't even thought to ask.

Rosemary Shahan, President of Consumers for Auto Reliability and Safety had this to say about Mr. Taylor's new book: "This book is an excellent guide for auto owners that will help you figure out if your car is coming down with 'lemonitis,' and what you can do to get it cured - or get another lemonitis-free automobile."

Mr. Taylor has appeared on many TV and Radio shows talking about the practical and technical aspects of the lemon law. Mr. Taylor's firms have over 18 years returned more than $100 million dollars in customer refunds. These cases have provided Mr. Taylor with extraordinary experience about the subject.

Contact:

Donald P. Ladew

818-244-3905

425 West Broadway, Suite 220

Glendale, CA 91204

Fax: 818-244-6052

<http://normantaylor.com>

<http://lemonattorneys.com>

E-Mail: donald@normantaylor.com

# #

Contact Information

Donald Ladew

WALLACE PUBLISHING

<http://www.lemonattorneys.com>

818-244-3905

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.