

More Successful Canadian's Should Be Remembered

Benjamin Miles Keaton and Internet Marketer Corey Rudl were killed in car crash on June 2, 2005 at The Fontana Motor Speedway in California. Rudle was killed on the scene, while Keaton, the driver was air lifted by Mercy air and pronounced dead a short time later at Loma Linda University Medical. The news Caused major shock and disbelief in the world of Internet Marketing.

(PRWEB) June 12, 2005 -- Lorenzo Tartamella of marketing.ca extends his deepest condolences to Corey Rudle.

Lorenzo Tartamella of Dataware Corporation and www.marketing.ca would like to extend condolences to all members of the Family and Staff of Corey Nicholas Rudl of The Internet Marketing Center and www.marketingtips.com On Monday June 6 2005 www.marketing.ca contacted the offices of Corey Rudl in Vancouver, Canada, where they confirmed the news and devastating shock of the sudden passing of their leader who was an absolutely wonderful, talented, and incredibly great; young Canadian. Corey Rudl was 35 and born in Ottawa, Canada. Marketing.ca feels that more succesful Canadians should be honored.

Corey was an idol for thousands of Internet Marketers around the world. Corey was a brilliant and daring Marketer who often used techniques that no one else ever dare. There is no question his techniques worked and made many of us successful. Corey's techniques were often an Internet Marketers best kept secret. The Internet Marketing Center confirmed to us that despite the difficulties and shock that this sudden news has brought, it is business as usual. Both staff and management are coping well despite the reality of a situation which seems so surreal.

www.marketingtips.com will continue to serve Marketers from around the world. Corey has done a phenomenal job in creating a team of dedicated individuals who will continue to serve exactly as he would have wanted them to! Corey leaves behind a wife Tracey, his parents John and Pat, his sister Hope and niece Taya. We love you Corey and you will be missed by thousands and thousands more around the world. We will miss your charming smile and the motivation you brought to our lives.

Supporters of Corey Rudle can post thoughts and prayers at www.remembercorey.com and www.warriorforum.com/forum Family and staff would like to thank everyone for the love and pouring in of messages around the world.

###

Contact Information

Lorenzo Tartamella

Dataware Corporation

<http://www.marketing.ca>

1 800 465 1005

Online Web 2.0 Version

You can read the online version of this press release here.