

Mainely Motorsports Welcomes Extreme Rod and Custom as Major Sponsor

Extreme Rod and Custom, Maine's premier custom car builder, has teamed up with Mainely Motorsports for a new feature.

(PRWEB) June 18, 2005 -- Mainely Motorsports Television, the grass roots show for gearheads of all kinds, announced today the consumation of a partnership with Extreme Rod and Custom of Portland.

"We are very excited to be working with such masters of the craft." stated Jerret Condon, VP of Mainely Motorsports. "We anticipate a lot of good things from working with these guys"

Extreme Rod and Custom, which exhibits their prize creations at shows around the country, has not only become a sponsor of the television show but may begin filming the events they attend as an ongoing feature for Mainely Motorsports.

"These guys are very well connected." stated Condon, "They immediately hooked us up with Right Coast Association, which produces some of the largest hot rod shows in the country."

Right Coast, based in Syracuse, NY produces events hosting as many as 6000 show cars.

Mainely Motorsports President, John Crawford went on to say "We have filmed a feature story about Extreme and their staff of masters at their facility in Portland. They aim to become one of the top custom builders in the country and from what we have seen, they are well on the way."

Mainely Motorsports Television airs on UPN35 across Maine and New Hampshire. Their offices can be reached at 207-699-1325.
