MyTripJournal, the world's leading supplier of Personal Travel Websites, and The Good Sam Club, the world's largest RV owners' organization, have launched a virtual scavenger hunt contest.

Vancouver, BC; Ventura, CA; Portland, OR (PRWEB) June 30, 2005 -- MyTripJournal, the world's leading supplier of Personal Travel Websites, and The Good Sam Club, the world's largest RV owners' organization, have launched a virtual scavenger hunt contest to inform Good Sam Club members of this new member benefit.

The scavenger hunt follows the real-life travels of Carol and Phil White through their Personal Travel Website called 'Long Road to Redmond', ending July 11 at the Great North American RV Rally in Redmond Oregon.

Personal Travel Websites appeal to many RV travelers such as the Whites, co-authors of 'Live Your Road Trip Dream'. "MyTripJournal is an easy-to-use resource that has helped us to showcase our travel experiences through a selection of maps, photos and text, and other useful features", says Carol White.

"Many RVers and other road trippers are currently using some combination of email or their own websites to stay in touch. With MyTripJournal, all those tasks are automated and made easy for travelers. We have been particularly impressed with the ease of mapping and the automated email service to your selected list of friends and family every time you make an update."

MyTripJournal websites are available to Good Sam Club members at discounted pricing at www.goodsamclub.com. The scavenger hunt contest is entered at <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s.asp?u=12791110763>.
