

British Customs Announces Their Fall Sale To Help Motorcyclists Build Their Dream Rides

British Customs announces their November deals, helping motorcyclists achieve a custom look with factory fitment with Weekend Projects packages.

Los Angeles, CA (PRWEB) November 17, 2016 -- British Customs just announced their November Deals with spectacular deals on a range of custom motorcycle products, helping riders build their custom dream bike themselves with instant manufacturer rebates on Weekend Projects packages up to 15 % off. As of November 17th, British Customs will be offering a variety of deals on British Customs products, with discounts on products from Mule Motorcycles, Analog Motorcycles, and other select brands through 12/1.

For British Customs' November Deals, riders will be able to take advantage of

- Up to 15% off Weekend Projects
- Saving $50 for every $250 spent
- Free shipping on all U.S. orders $199+ for Rider's Club Members (no purchase necessary to join)
- Free shipping for new exhaust including Predator Pro, Sleeper Pro, and Performance Tip mufflers

To get the maximum benefit of these offers, riders should join the British Customs Rider's Club. Beyond the November Deals offers, the British Customs Riders Club allows motorcycle owners to keep up to date with all the latest releases from British Customs, access to pre-orders on exclusive new parts, and free shipping on domestic orders over $199.

With the newly released Weekend Projects, riders are able to completely transform their motorcycles in a single wrenching session using only common tools. Weekend Projects take the guesswork out of motorcycle customization:

- Step 1: Select a main upgrade (Like a seat, exhaust, or turn signals)
- Step 2: Get the essentials (Color and personalization options, styles, finishes)
- Step 3: Recommended add-ons (Turn Signals, Relocation Brackets, Plug n Play Harnesses)

Weekend Projects are upgrades packages containing everything a rider needs to fully customize any section of his or her motorcycle including, appearance, controls, driveline, handling, lighting, performance, and more.

Weekend Projects can also help riders convert their bikes into a number of authentic retro styles, such as

- Cafe racers
- Trackers
- Bobbers
- Scramblers
- Desert Sleds
- Hot Rods
- Resto-mods
- And more

To help further eliminate the hassle, British Customs created a Resource Center to act as a digital library for technical motorcycle know-how on their website. The British Customs Resource Center is home to installation instructions, how to guides, and more for a wide array of British Customs products and general motorcycle maintenance topics.

Weekend Projects are available for the Triumph Bonneville T100, Thruxton 900, Scrambler, Street Twin, Bonneville T120, Thruxton 1200 & R, and now for the Ducati Scrambler.

The British Customs Black Friday All Month Sale offers are good while quantities last, or through December 1, 2016.
