

World Patent Marketing Invention Team Announces The Spill No More Funnel, An Automotive Invention That Will Help People Refuel Large Vehicles

World Patent Marketing Reviews A New Automotive Invention. Will The Spill No More Funnel Be the Next World Patent Marketing Low Cost Success Story?

Miami, FL (PRWEB) October 27, 2016 -- World Patent Marketing, a vertically integrated manufacturer and engineer of patented products, introduces the Spill No More Funnel, an automotive invention that will help people refuel their vehicles.

“The automotive accessory industry is worth $40 billion,” says Scott Cooper, CEO and Creative Director of World Patent Marketing. “Most consumers prefer to buy their accessories directly from the dealer, so it is important for the dealers to embrace the right technology and sell the right product to keep customers coming through the door.”

“All vehicles need fuel, but refueling can be a bit of a challenge for people who own larger vehicles,” says Jerry Shapiro, Director of Manufacturing and World Patent Marketing Inventions. “This automotive invention will help people refuel their vehicles with no mess and little effort.”

The Spill No More Funnel is an automotive invention that makes refueling a vehicle cleaner, safer, and more convenient. Refueling larger vehicles can be very difficult due to the position of the tank, the weight of the gas container, and the need of a funnel to prevent spills. This invention combines all of that into one. The Spill No More Funnel comes with several adapters to fit directly onto all different kinds of vehicles from all makes and models. The funnel then attaches directly to this adapter that holds the funnel in place, allowing the user to refuel the tank without having to hold the funnel in place. In addition, once the tank is reaching its limit, an indicator will light up to show the user that the tank is full. This will prevent users from overfilling the tank and causing any spills. The Spill No More Funnel makes refueling easier and more convenient while saving time and money by preventing spills.

“When I filling up my dad's Bobcat Skid loader with diesel fuel, I thought if only I had a funnel that screwed into the tank that would adjust with a flexible sturdy hose, it would be a lot easier than trying to juggle a 40lb diesel can and a funnel at the same time,” says inventor Alan S.

The Spill No More Funnel is an automotive invention that fits over a vehicle’s fuel tank to allow fuel to be transferred easily from a container into the vehicle with no spills or overflow. This will help large vehicle owners save time, effort, and money.
