

National Automobile Club President/CEO Retires

Wayne Bayliff, President and CEO of National Automobile Club Retires and Will Pursue Journalistic Interests

(PRWEB) July 22, 2005 -- The Board of Directors of the National Automobile Club (NAC) has approved the early retirement of President and Chief Executive Officer, Wayne Bayliff (62). Mr. Bayliff was with the auto club for six years, and was instrumental in making the California motor club a national presence. The NAC is the publisher of the National Motorist magazine for which Mr. Bayliff will continue to be a contributing writer. In retirement, Mr. Bayliff says he plans to travel and pursue multiple writing interests.

###

Contact Information*Wayne R. Bayliff

National Automobile Club

650-571-8033

Online Web 2.0 VersionYou can read the online version of this press release here.