

The Ultimate Summer Event -- Not Just Another Car Show

The 7th Annual Darknights Nationals, Canada's largest outdoor car, entertainment and lifestyle showcase, is set for this weekend at the Markham Fairgrounds.

Toronto (PRWEB) July 24, 2005 -- Four wheels, two wheels or no wheels at all. The 7th Annual Darknights Nationals features everything about wheels and more - cars, trucks, bikes and motocross stunts to gaming tournament and a live Pirate Stunt Show.

Kevin Yee, the 28-year-old director of operations was in the mood to create something different, something extreme, something more.

"With more than 1500 show cars on display from across North America -- everything from sports cars, trucks and highly modified race cars, to luxury cars and SUVs -- this year's event is designed as a theme park for cars, trucks and bikes and for the people who enjoy them," said Yee.

"Everything imaginable on two and four wheels will be at the event. Our team has planned a spectacular event that showcases and appreciates the lifestyle of the automobile enthusiast."
