

RVTraderOnline.com Announces the Top Ten Most Searched States for Recreational Vehicles in 2005

Focusing on the number of state searches conducted on RVTraderOnline.com from January 1, 2005 to the present, it was determined which states accumulated the most interest from RV enthusiasts.

Norfolk, VA (PRWEB) December 7, 2005 -- RVTraderOnline.com, an online showroom of over 75,000 recreational vehicles across the US and a division of Trader Publishing Company announces the states that have received the most searches on RVTraderOnline.com for end of 2005 are California and Florida.

Focusing on the number of state searches conducted on RVTraderOnline.com from January 1, 2005 to the present, it was determined which states accumulated the most interest from RV enthusiasts.

Those top ten states are California, Florida, Arizona, Texas, Washington, Michigan, Georgia, Ohio, Oregon, and North Carolina, in consecutive order. It appears that mostly coastal states in the Southwest, Northwest, Midwest and Southeast regions of the nation are where online RV enthusiasts have been searching for recreational vehicles.
