Executive Coach, Inc. implements Transportation Product Suite from Paradigm Technology Consulting, LLC and Distinctive Systems, LTD.

Trenton, NJ (PRWEB) December 12, 2005 -- Paradigm Technology Consulting, LLC is pleased to announce that Executive Coach, Inc., a motorcoach operator with a fleet of 12 vehicles had recently implemented the Distinctive Systems Charter Booking System (CBS), Vehicle Maintenance System (VMS), and Paradigm Transportation Suite -- Driver Accounting and Trip Report (DATR) systems.

As an operator that is looking to grow the business, Dale McMichael, Vice President of Executive Coach, was looking for a system that would be easy to implement today, but would provide his organization with the base to grow without replacing his operational software. Mr. McMichael states "I have found the products to be simple to implement with a minimum of software knowledge required."

After establishing a successful implementation with the CBS and DATR products, Executive Coach moved forward with the purchase and implementation of the Distinctive Systems Vehicle Maintenance System. Mr. McMichael commented that "the product integration is allowing us to use our data to make better business decisions."
