

Pyramid Parking Inc. Launches New Redesigned Web Site pyramidparking.com

Web site features improved navigation, client and services list and image archive of over eight decades of Silberman family parking operations.

Culver City, CA (PRWEB) December 11, 2005 -- Pyramid Parking Inc. has launched a new web site today featuring a comprehensive list of services, clients, locations and events the Los Angeles and California based company has provided for the last 8 decades. Beginning their operations in 1921, the Silberman family has been the oldest continuously operating parking company in Southern California and nationally. Currently operating as Pyramid Parking Inc., the company focuses on valet parking for restaurant, retail locations and 24 parking services and lot management.

The company's new web site exhibits an image archive showing the different stages of the family's organization and the properties they have owned and managed over the years. Also featured is the extensive list of services the company offers for valet parking, event parking and planning, lot management and even parking and lot construction consulting. The site also offers a press area where clients can view the latest press clippings and press releases pertaining to news and events about the company's parking services.

Pyramid Parking Inc. is a fully insured and highly experienced California valet parking company striving to provide the highest quality of service and dependability to its clients and their customers.
