

Automotive Service Still Available in Roswell, Georgia, through Carl Black

Local dealership's service department has remained open, available to service vehicle

ROSWELL, Ga. (PRWEB) March 27, 2020 -- A lot of things are different these days and changing every day in response to the events currently affecting the world. As non-essential businesses close or drastically alter the way they do business, Carl Black Buick GMC of Roswell has thus far remained open to service its customers' vehicles and will continue to for the foreseeable future.

While many people around the city and beyond are cutting back on their travel and interactions with people, accessing essential businesses like hospitals, grocery stores and more is still crucial. The safest way for these places to be accessed is by driving to them, thus service departments like the one at Carl Black of Roswell are essential to daily life even during this pandemic.

Residents of the area who continue to utilize their vehicle can rest assured that if something were to happen, the folks at Carl Black will be available to them. The pandemic is also no excuse to neglect regularly scheduled maintenance such as oil changes and tire rotations. Carl Black is there to make sure your vehicle continues to run as it should throughout the pandemic and once things return to normal afterward.

The Carl Black service department is currently open from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday but will remain closed on Sundays. Questions about any of this can be directed to the service team at 888-445-7984. More information can be found at www.carlblackroswell.com. Carl Black Roswell is located at 11225 Alpharetta Hwy in Roswell.
