

Roswell, Georgia Shoppers Can Research New GMC AT4 Vehicles Online

Carl Black Buick GMC Roswell provides informative model research on new AT4 lineup

ROSWELL, Ga. (PRWEB) February 26, 2020 -- Alongside the introduction of the next-generation GMC Yukon, the company announced it would be doubling its lineup of AT4 trim levels. The AT4 trim was first available on the GMC Sierra pickup truck as an off-road focused option. Three different off-road AT4 trim levels were available for the 2020 model year: the GMC Sierra 1500, Sierra HD and Acadia.

For the 2021 model year, these will be joined by the GMC Yukon AT4, GMC Canyon AT4 and GMC Terrain AT4, doubling the number of off-road trim levels the brand has to offer. Carl Black Roswell, a Buick and GMC dealership located in the city of its namesake, has already gotten a jump on providing information about these new models to shoppers in the area.

In addition to posts on the dealership's blog, off-road enthusiasts can read about the 2021 GMC Canyon AT4 and 2021 GMC Yukon AT4 on the Carl Black Roswell website. Each page gives a rundown on what sets the model's off-road AT4 trim level apart from the nameplate's other trims. This includes features that enhance each vehicles' off-road capabilities as well as unique design cues.

To learn all about these new trim levels, interested parties can head to the dealership's website at www.carlblackroswell.com. Shoppers with specific questions about any of the AT4 models can direct them to the sales team at 888-491-7859. Carl Black Roswell is located at 11225 Alpharetta Hwy.
