TNT Super Series Championship to be decided at Saturday's double-header

Scott Jahren Paint presents 2010 season-ending event!

LANCASTER, NEW YORK (September 27, 2010) Eleven events are in the books so far in 2010 and the Joe's Transmission TNT Super Series is about to crown a new champion - the fourth different champion in as many years.

Two events remain on the schedule and both will be run in a single day this Saturday at Dunn Tire Raceway Park in Lancaster, New York.

Pete Maduri Jr has a commanding point lead over second place Dave Surmatchewski - however Dave is not out of it yet. A good run this weekend and he could scoop the championship.

Everyone else will be fighting for a spot in the highly coveted top five - for their share of the yearend awards, not to mention getting into one of the final rounds for a shot at the Jiffytite / Weldon Pump Elite Finalist Award.

The morning's event is a make-up race from May 22 presented by The Second City Toronto. In addition to the guaranteed payout, the winner will also receive four tickets for dinner and a show at Second City Toronto valued at $200.00.

The afternoon race is presented by Scott Jahren Paint and is the final event in the 2010 TNT Super Series season. "Scott is a long-time supporter of the TNT Super Series and of grass-roots sportsman racing. We're very excited to have him back with us again this year," said Ted Barnes, TNT Series Director.

Scott Jahren Paint is the premiere custom paint shop in the northeast. Located in Tonawanda NY, their specialty is high quality workmanship with an expert attention to detail. Many pro modified and sportsman racecars come out of the western New York shop. But their work doesn't stop at racecars. They also do street rod work and are currently working on expanding their restoration business - including complete frame-off restorations. Visit them at www.scottjahrepaint.com .

Gates open at 9am on Saturday with the first qualifier at 10am sharp - and eliminations set for 11am (race 1). The schedule is aggressive so get there early!
