Barry Lingle wins his first TNT Super Series event before Mother Nature postpones second race

Don't put your stuff away yet - One more Hot Rod race - Oct 23rd at DTRP!

LANCASTER, NEW YORK (October 5, 2010) "When it's your day, it's your day!" commented Barry Lingle in the Dunn Tire Raceway Park (DTRP) winner's circle this past Saturday after winning his first Joe's Transmission TNT Super Series event. Barry bested twenty-five of the toughest sportsman racers in the northeast to take the event win on the Lancaster, New York eighth mile.

The Leicester, NY racer won the day's first race, presented by The Second City Toronto, which was a makeup race from earlier in the season. The second event scheduled that same day got rained out and has been re-scheduled for Saturday October 23rd.

Barry qualified well with a 7.009 landing him in the number two spot, behind Dave Surmatchewski of Oakland, Ontario who posted a perfect 7.000 to qualify at the top of the 25 car field.

Round one saw Barry eliminate Scott Jahren of Tonawanda, NY. Both very close on the tree at .521 to .526, it was Barry's 7.006 that beat Scott's 6.994.

A bye run in round two set him up to face the high mph Mustang of Alden, NY based Brian Young. When the tree activated, Barry had the advantage and carried it through the big end to take the third round win.

It was in the semi's that Barry got lucky. Facing Jason Vitez out of Elma, NY, Barry missed the tree. Didn't matter though as Jason went .480 red, handing the round to Barry and sending him into the final round against Dave Surmatchewski. Dave had some tough battles of his own, defeating Chris VanBaalén, Pete Maduri Jr and Wayne Sipos on route to the final round.

Off the starting line, both got away clean with Barry drilling the tree with a .503 light. Dave had a valiant effort however his uncharacteristically late .575 light put him too far behind and even his almost perfect 7.006 ET wasn't enough. Barry's outstanding starting line performance allowed him to take the win running a 7.025 - and becoming the 19th different winner since the TNT Super Series' inception back in 2006.

Barry also received four passes for dinner and a show courtesy of The Second City Toronto. He was quick to thank his wife Dorothy and his crew chief Bill Kern. "Bill comes to all the divisional races with me and really is a lot of help," Barry added.

Sponsoring the 1968 Camaro is Mitrano Tire of Piffard, NY. It's powered by a 468 Chevrolet with a Powerglide transmission and Ford 9" rearend. Barry has owned the car for 10 years. "It was a pro street car when we bought it. Started racing it in Hot Rod about 3 years ago. It's currently for sale!" Barry started racing in 1963 at Spencer Speedway and has been hooked ever since. Now he runs at select IHRA divisional races - he finished in 7th place last year.
