TNT Super Series - Final Hot Rod Event for 2010 is this Saturday

Dunn Tire Raceway Park once again hosts season finale!

LANCASTER, NEW YORK (October 20, 2010) It all comes down to numbers - forty-four drivers, thirteen races, nine weekends, three racetracks - one final race. The last event in the 2010 Joe's Transmission TNT Super Series will bring the best of the best 10.90 index sportsman racers to Dunn Tire Raceway Park (DTRP) this Saturday October 23rd.

Presented by Scott Jähren Paint, the event promises a strong car count and incredibly close finishes. In the points chase with 867 points, Pete Maduri Jr has mathematically locked up first place and Dave Surmatchewski at 719 points just needs to show up to confirm second.

The battle will be from third through fifth to see who gets on the podium at the yearend banquet to earn cash and the highly-coveted series jacket. Mark Herbold is third with 648, Ted Barnes is close behind with 642 and then Bill Elekes is right there with 634.

Although Ontario drivers Chris VanBaalén and Fred Gross in sixth and seventh may have something to say since a good run by either of them could land them in the top five.

Along with the Joe's Transmission TNT Super Series event on Saturday, DTRP is hosting their first annual Pumpkin Run - a large payout bracket race. Gates open at 9am. Visit www.dunntireracewaypark.com for full weekend details.
