

Fantasy Racer Partners with Clear Channel Entertainment and American Suzuki to Bring Supercross Fans Their Own Fantasy League

Fantasy Racer launches fantasy league for Amp'd Mobile Supercross Series. The grand prize for the overall winner is a brand new motorcycle from American Suzuki Motor Corporation.

West Covina, CA (PRWEB) January 7, 2006 -- Fantasy Racer announces the launch of the Suzuki Supercross Fantasy League powered by FantasyRacer.com. The fantasy league allows you to choose real riders who participate in the AMP'd Mobile Supercross Series and you score points based on how well they do. Each rider who participates in the AMP'd Mobile Supercross Series is assigned a fantasy salary and each team manager is provided a $1 Million fantasy budget to acquire a team of riders.

The grand prize for the overall winner is a brand new Suzuki RM250 and a No Fear gear package. Second overall will win an "Ultimate Gamers Package" that consists of a 20" Flat Screen Television and an Xbox360 or PS2. Third place overall will receive a Playstation Portable.

Prizes from Renthal, No Fear, Moto Tees, THQ, and others will also be available to individual round winners. Sponsorships are still available so if you are interested in sponsoring any of the FRC fantasy leagues please contact Fantasy Racer.

Fantasy Racer is also pleased to announce that we have partnered with Clear Channel Entertainment and the Road 2 Recovery Foundation. This new partnership makes FantasyRacer.com the official fantasy site of Supercross.cc.com, the official site of the Amp'd Mobile AMA Supercross Series. In fact, if you sign up through Supercross.cc.com Clear Channel will donate 100% of their revenue from the 2006 Suzuki Supercross League to the Road 2 Recovery Foundation.

Fantasy Racer is a company offering fantasy racing leagues for the motorcycle racing enthusiast at www.FantasyRacer.com. FRC does not limit itself to one form of racing but instead offers a diverse range of racing disciplines like Supercross, Motocross, Superbike, Flat Track, MotoGP and others.
