Dover, N.H. (PRWEB) May 25, 2016 -- Chosen at random from thousands of entries, John Zaverl, of Lehigh Acres, Florida, enjoyed this weekend's NASCAR Sprint All-Star Race in style, as the grand-prize winner of VXi Corporation's BlueParrott All-Star Race VIP Experience. John and his wife, Corrine Swearingen, won two VIP tickets and the exclusive pit experience, plus travel costs and hotel for the spectacular three-segment event on May 21 in Charlotte, North Carolina.

This was John's first all-star race and the first NASCAR race for Corrine. "We were more than excited to go to Charlotte," said John. "And it was even better than we imagined. The race was sensational, and we really did get the VIP treatment. We can't thank VXi enough for this incredible experience!"

For Members Only

BlueParrott All-Star Race VIP Experience was the latest members-only contest sponsored by the VXi BlueParrott Driver's Club. The club is free to enter, and members get inside information on new products, opportunities to test upcoming BlueParrott solutions, free BlueParrott merchandise—and the opportunity to enter contests like All-Star Race VIP Experience.

"Everyone at VXi congratulates John Zaverl and his wife, Corrine," said Mike Ferguson, president and CEO of VXi. "We're glad they had such a great time in Charlotte and hope they'll remember it for years to come. The BlueParrott Driver's Club, and contests like this one, are great ways for us to show our appreciation to our loyal BlueParrott customers."
